

The Sun Goes Down

I'm here and I miss you so much.

Sad day... I wanna feel your touch.

Come back... you're my only one.

I only live when the sun goes down.

And I see to the evening sky and I pray

That you can hear my strong beating heart when I say:

When the sun goes down

I will wait for you.

When the sun goes down

Make my dreams come true.

Stay with me tonight

And let the stars shine bright.

When the sun goes down

I will wait for you.

When the sun goes down

Make my dreams come true.

Stay with me tonight

And let the stars shine bright.... oh so bright.

And I see to the evening sky and I pray

That you can hear my strong beating heart

I'm waiting, I'm waiting, I'm waiting, I'm waiting.....

When the sun goes down

I will wait for you.

When the sun goes down

Make my dreams come true.

Stay with me tonight

And let the stars shine bright.... oh so bright.

And I see to the evening sky and I pray

That you can hear my strong beating heart

And I see to the evening sky and I pray

That you can hear my beating heart
